

They have a very strange form of amusement. They are amused at a double murder.

Q. What did he say?

A. He asked me if there was any questions or knowledge I had of the murder. They were interested in solving it, if there was any help I could give.

Q. What did you tell him?

A. No.

Q. Did he stop trailing you?

A. He kept on following me.

Q. And for how long, after you told him you had no information?

A. About two years.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. PFEIFFER:

Q. Miss Mills, at any time did Mr. DiMartini threaten you in any way?

A. No, he did not.

Q. Were you ever offered any money by Mr. DiMartini.

A. No, I was not.

Q. Were you ever offered any money by me or anyone else in Mrs. Hall's behalf?

A. No, I was not.

MR. SIMPSON: No, she was never offered any money.